

Co-ordinating Council of Sikh Institutions

Name

Co-ordinating Council of Sikh Institutions

Key Role

Only a Co-ordinating Body

Council of Sikh Institutions

Ordinary Council Members (16)

Gurdwaras

- President, Central Sikh Gurdwara Board
- Vice President, Central Sikh Gurdwara Board
- President, Gurdwara Sahib Yishun
- President, Khalsa Dharmak Sabha
- President, Pardesi Khalsa Dharmak Diwan
- President, Sri Guru Nanak Sat Sang Sabha
- President, Sri Guru Singh Sabha Singapore

Co-ordinating Council of Sikh Institutions

Other Sikh Institutions

- President, Isteri Sat Sang (Central Sikh Temple)
- President, Khalsa Jiwan Sudhar Sabha
- President, Sikh Missionary Society
- President, Sikh Business Association
- President, Sikh Sewaks, Singapore
- Chairman, Sikh Welfare Council
- President, Singapore Khalsa Association
- Chairman, Singapore Sikh Education Foundation
- President, Young Sikh Association (Singapore)

Council of Sikh Institutions

Associate Council Member (1)

- Chairman, Sikh Advisory Board
(No Voting Rights)

Co-ordinating Council of Sikh Institutions

What CCSI WILL DO

- A platform for discussion on common issues pertaining to the Sikh community.
- Identify and look into the strategic needs of the Sikh community.
- Assist in coordinating national level activities for the Sikh community.

Co-ordinating Council of Sikh Institutions

What CCSI WILL DO

- Address unattended issues that do not fall within the mandate of Sikh operating institutions.
- Help mediate differences between Sikh institutions, when requested.
- Deal with overseas Sikh bodies on issues that are not already being attended to by Sikh Institutions.
- Suggest best practices for Sikh institutions.

Co-ordinating Council of Sikh Institutions

What CCSI WILL NOT DO

- Exercise any Executive Authority
- Displace any Sikh institution.
- Take over the management and running of Sikh institutions.
- Manage any funds or have an account.
- Duplicate activities that are already or that could be handled by Sikh Institutions.

Co-ordinating Council of Sikh Institutions

Operating Guidelines

- CSI to be represented by (Head) President/Chairman of Sikh Institutions.
- In their absence, the next highest office holder to represent him/her.
- Membership to CCSI changes if there is change of Head at the Institution.

Co-ordinating Council of Sikh Institutions

Operating Guidelines

- The Chairman, Vice Chairman and Secretary of CCSI to be elected by CCSI Ordinary Council members for a term of 2 years.
- Chairman not eligible for re-election (i.e. One term of 2 years only)
- All office bearers must be ordinary Council Members

Co-ordinating Council of Sikh Institutions

Operating Guidelines

- Secretary's Organisation to provide Secretarial support.
- CCSI to meet every four to six months.