

Doing More of the Same

A. Activities and Programmes in the Gurdwaras

- i. Continue organizing interesting darbar sessions that are crisp, clear and not too long.
- ii. Continue bringing in knowledgeable Sikhs and noted ragis from overseas to preach and do kirtan respectively.
- iii. Continue having competitions such as turban tying, singing shabads, tabla playing, quizzes on Sikhi etc.

B. Social and Welfare Needs

- i. Continue assisting Sikhs in financial straits by giving them rations and emergency financial assistance.
- ii. Continue assisting Sikhs who are jobless find jobs especially in companies and businesses owned by Sikhs in the spirit of Sikhs helping Sikhs. Building up a database of businesses in need of workers and Sikhs in need of jobs would be useful.
- iii. Continue making visits to the prisons, drug centres, hospitals, homes for the aged and involve more volunteers, especially the youth, to assist in these programmes.

C. Punjabi and Sikhi Education

- i. Continue supporting children from poor families with free classes.
- ii. Continue providing opportunities for our children to interact by organizing concerts, plays, etc.
- iii. Continue with the immersion and outreach programmes as carried out by SKA and YSA.

D. Sports, Culture and Social Development Activities

- i. Continue organizing networking sessions.
- ii. Continue bringing in cultural groups from overseas to entertain our community.
- iii. Continue organizing melas that are family oriented and liquor free.
- iv. Continue staging plays and exhibitions that promote our culture and Sikh values.
